

DECEMBER

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			1 The birds didn't go south for the winter.	2 Write about a person convinced they can do no wrong.	3 If the snow fell in a different color.	4 Write about someone who gets stuck at work during a blizzard and get explore spaces they normally weren't.
5 "This made me think of you."	6 Set your story in a remote winter cabin with no electricity, internet, or phone service.	7 Write about if you had a superpower.	8 Write your own conspiracy theory.	9 Five ideas for a novel that you'll never write.	10 A time you felt incredibly nervous.	11 Write a story set in summer, when suddenly it starts to snow.
12 If snow were made of something else...	13 What book affected your life and why?	14 An example diary entry from a famous person you would want to read.	15 Create a world that lives on a snowflake in detail.	16 You need to make a list for your Christmas dinner.	17 What you dream about when you look up at the stars.	18 A breaking point.
19 A list of similarities between you and The Grinch.	20 Write a story told exclusively through dialogue	21 Through love...	22 The drink that brings forth your Christmas spirit.	23 The sweet princess is actually the horrible villain.	24 Write about who gets proposed to 5 times on Christmas Eve.	25 Your dream Christmas Day.
26 A poem based your favorite Christmas song.	27 Start your story with someone looking out at the snow, and end it with them stepping tentatively onto ice.	28 "You should stay, the weather is horrible!"	29 Write about two people going sledding for the first time in many years.	30 5...4...3...2...1...		