

Events Taking Place on September 30

City of Stony Plain Project of Heart

All are welcome to wear orange shirts and bring your completed art (can be an orange paper heart) as an act of reconciliation to the Stony Plain Youth Centre on September 30 for a ceremony in honour of National Day of Truth and Reconciliation. For more information visit: stonyplain.com

Town of Devon

Orange Shirt Day 2021 - National Day for Truth & Reconciliation

Join the Town of Devon on September 30 as we come together to remember those who have survived the residential school system, and those who did not.

View the complete schedule at devon.ca.

Light the Bridge

In Edmonton, on September 30, 2021, the High-Level Bridge will be lit in orange to recognize this day and to encourage the city to reflect upon the legacy of Indian Residential Schools.

CFWE Radio

Orange Shirt Run/Walk Every Child Matters

Register at: www.cfweradio.ca

Please join for a Run/Walk in support and awareness of those who did not survive the Residential school era and for those who did. This event aims to raise funds for the Indian Residential School Survivors Society and local grassroots movements.

University of Calgary

Indigenous Writers' Panel: Literature on Intergenerational Trauma and Healing

Join UCalgary's Office of Indigenous Engagement, in partnership with the Calgary Public Library, in welcoming Eden Robinson, Richard Van Camp and Lee Maracle who will share their literature on intergenerational trauma and Indigenous resilience. Register at ucalgary.ca

University of Calgary

Monkey Beach: Film Screening and Discussion

Monkey Beach is a feature film adapting the novel by Eden Robinson, a member of the Haisla and Heiltsuk First Nations in B.C. The novel draws the reader deep into a traditional world, a hidden universe of premonition, pain and power during a time when tragedy strikes a West Coast Indigenous community. This story explores the healing journey steeped in intergenerational trauma as the main character discovers deep connections with her ancestral world and spiritual beliefs. Register at ucalgary.ca

For a full list of programs happening in Alberta visit
<https://www.alberta.ca/orange-shirt-day.aspx>

Wear an orange shirt on September 30, and other suggested activities include:

- read about the legacy of residential schools
- read the summary of the Final Report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada
- find and watch films online about people's experiences at residential schools
- learn about Indigenous cultures

