

November

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
	1 Write about a rainy day spent indoors.	2 A mermaid is stuck in SeaWorld.	3 A game you love to play with others.	4 Write about a character who everyone thinks is guilty of something terrible, but isn't.	5 A thing that isn't supposed to speak says a sentence you never expected.	6 A smell that brings a happy memory.
7 Write a story about waiting – but don't reveal what for until the end.	8 You are trying to atone for a mistake that you'll never be able to fix.	9 A story where the characters can control the reader.	10 "How could I?"	11 Create a song verse about going through a hardship.	12 A man stands across the lake.	13 A short story about someone who finds out they are adopted.
14 Your dream road trip itinerary.	15 An interesting fact about your family.	16 Which fairytale would you like to live?	17 A time when something unexpected happened.	18 Write about someone who still practices a skill that has been replaced by technology.	19 An instrument you've always wanted to play.	20 Every year, one person is sent to the moon. This year, it is your turn to enter the rocket.
21 A child sees the Northern Lights for the first time.	22 The instructions to your favorite food recipe.	23 Your wish on a shooting star.	24 Set your story in a small town where everyone is suspicious of newcomers.	25 A poem detailing a crime from the POV of the criminal.	26 Guilty pleasures.	27 Write a story about discovering a secret society.
28 "Choose me."	29 A haiku based on a film or TV show you are watching.	30 Write about a character who's obsessed with an era they never lived through.
